Nowell Bleckford and Miss Lennie Drake of Randolph were married yesterday afternoon at the Congregational parsonage by the Rev. F. A. Poole. The happy couple are taking an extended drive through this section on their honeymoon. Temporarily they will stop at 26 Elm street, Montpelier, and afterward visit in this city. Mr. and Mrs. Bleckford will reside in Randolph.

A good exhibition of wrestling was given at the Church street gymnasium last night, when Bixby of Barre defeated French of Montpelier for the third time. The preliminary was between Pete Morgan of Barre and Young Benzie. Morgan won the first fall in 12 minutes with a double bar hold and in the second Benzie laid down five minutes after the start. Then Joseph Cook of Barre gave a first class exhibition of bag punching, the imitation of the drum corps being especially good. In the main bout Bixby threw French with a double bar hold in 28 minutes. Bixby outpointed French in science and strength, although French pulled out of some bad holes. The next fall came in 20 minutes with a double bar hold. Both wrestlers were in first class condition.
